

MRS. BERGDOLL GETS YEAR IN PEN

JENSEN MOVES TO HAVE ALL BILLS LISTED IN COUNCIL

ALDERMEN ACCEPT AND BILLS AGAINST CITY ARE REMOVED FROM SECRECY.

OPINION IS FILED

City Attorney Passes on Payment of Car Repairs and Upkeep.

Where the city's money is going and what it is being spent for will in the future be known to every member of the city council, instead of only the three members of the finance committee, as a result of a resolution introduced Monday night by Alderman J. N. Jensen, third ward, and passed by the council, 12 to 2. Aldermen J. J. Dulin and E. F. Kell, both of the fifth ward, cast the dissenting votes.

Opinion on Mayor's Auto.

Simultaneously with the passage of this resolution, came the opinion of City Attorney Horst G. Cunningham relative to paying the bills on Mayor T. E. Welsh's automobile. The matter was referred to him two weeks ago following discovery of the payment of bills on the mayor's car aggregating more than $600.

Transcript from the legal language of the opinion says briefly this:

"The city has power to pay for the cost of operating the Mayor's car only while it is actually and necessarily engaged in official city business. The council must arrive at some definite understanding to differentiate between paying for operation when used necessarily for city business and paying for it when used in his private business and for pleasure. The bill for $600 apparently covered all of the costs of maintenance and parking of the car which had decreased in value from pleasure and private business trips as well as on city business."

Opinion on File.

Mr. Cunningham's opinion was filed Monday night but was not read owing to the late hour, it being close to 11:30 o'clock before the council adjourned. It will be read at the adjourned regular meeting next Monday night.

The passage of Alderman Jensen's resolution will it be assumed, clear up all financial misunderstandings arising in the future which might occur. The council will know all about the city's expenditures and can question them when in doubt as to their necessity or when they seem to be unusually large. It provides that the city clerk "prepare a typewritten statement listing all claims presented for payment at any meeting, showing the name of the payee, amount of claim, and services or material covered by each claim, and that a copy of this statement be furnished each alderman at the opening of every meeting at which payments of money are to be acted upon."

Speaks for Open Finance.

Alderman Jensen presented arguments to show the necessity of such action, declaring it to be "good business."

"When we vote to spend money we should know where and for what it is going," said Mr. Jensen. "If we spend money illegally we are liable to a fine of $50 apiece. I offer this resolution for self-protection if for no other beneficial reason."

Alderman Dulin Objects.

"We'll need another city clerk. We're going to do it," said Alderman Dulin in reply, "to reflect more. We've been in this council a good many years and I'm always willing to vote on the bills as passed by the finance committee. There's no chance of our ever being fined."

"It is not my intention," said Alderman Jensen in reply, "to reflect anything on the finance committee but good business. I think all of us know the full details of city expenditures. We can't let intelligent men on these bills unless we do and we owe a duty to the citizens to be informed of these matters."

"I think it's a mighty good idea and worthy of investigation," declared Ald. L. J. Cronin, Sixth ward, in regard to the Jensen resolution.

No More Bills in Bulk.

The regular city financial list, including payments of salaries as well as bills, was read in full Monday night by City Clerk E. J. Scott for the first time in nearly two months. The bills formerly having been adopted in bulk by merely passing a resolution to pay "vouchers numbered — to —" through Alderman Jensen's resolution, it will not be necessary to read the complete list in the future as each alderman will have a copy of it. Asked as to how much extra work would be required to get these lists out for every meeting, Mr. Scott said it could be done in less than an hour with a machine he has in his office for turning out duplicate copies.

The City Council has declared the official city paper for the ensuing year to be the Janesville Gazette, for publishing city ordinances, notices, etc., at the rate of 75 cents per folio for the first insertion and 50 cents per folio for each succeeding insertion.

The council concluded not to have the proceedings printed.

CITY ATTORNEY'S OPINION.

At your last meeting Mayor Welsh discussed the question of expense for operation, maintenance and repair of his automobile and then requested the same.

(Continued on Page 2.)

Holland's Prettiest

Helen Victor in her boudoir, with her favorite dog.

Miss Helen Victor is now considered the most beautiful woman in the Netherlands. She is the arbiter of elegance and fashion in Holland.

Lad Found Dead in Marsh; Woman Faced by Charge of Mysterious Murder

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Detroit.—Mrs. Elizabeth Lewen, 55, held at the women's detention within the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Tuesday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Tuesday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Tuesday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Tuesday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Tuesday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

Alfredo Dulon, March.

The woman, Commissioner Inches said, had admitted that she was in the vicinity of the marsh last Wednesday, the day Max disappeared without on his way home from school.

When taken to the morgue Monday night Mrs. Lewen declared she did not recognize the boy. Officers planned to question her further and to investigate her mental condition. Mrs. Lewen had denied any knowledge of the boy's whereabouts since he had been strangled and the body thrown into a marsh on the east side where two boys found it while picnicking dandelions.

Father Asks Arrest.

Her arrest was asked by Frank E. Ernest, the child's father, who told authorities he believed she had helped to kidnap the boy to avenge a grudge he had in recent business dealings.

The investigation had resulted in her identification by neighbors of the Ernest family as a woman who had been seen in the neighborhood the day the lad disappeared.

24-BLOCK PROGRAM OF PAVING ORDERED

Board of Public Works to Start Going Through Necessary
"Red Tape"

Definite action was taken by the city council Monday night to bring about the paving this year of at least 24 blocks—18 with sheet asphalt and 6 with concrete.

In addition it was voted to oil seven other streets in response to petitions.

Orders were introduced for the laying of 46 sidewalks in six wards, but action was taken on but two of them, in the Ninth and Fifteenth wards, aldermen from the other four wards asking for time to investigate.

In getting under way the paving program for 1921, the council ordered the board of public works to view the property and prepare a schedule of benefits and damages accruing against each portion of property abutting on the streets which it is proposed to pave. Altho five blocks of paved work is on the east side of the river.

Here is the sheet asphalt program as adopted:

Second Ward.
Sherman avenue—Fremont to Milton, 2 blocks.

Fourth avenue—Main to Bluff, 1 block.

Sixth and Seventh.

Racing street—Logan to Fremont, 2 blocks.

Fremont street—Racing to Sharon, 5 blocks.

Blackhawk street—Racing to Clark, 1 block.

Clark street—Fremont to Black Hawk, 1 block.

Carrington—Fremont to Randall, 1 block.

Fourth and Fifth.

Pleasant—Franklin to Five Points, 5 blocks.

Two streets were ordered paved with concrete, the Janesville Sand & Gravel company having agreed to furnish and deliver the necessary sand and gravel without any charge. The streets are in the Second ward, as follows:

Hickory street—Glen to Benton, 5 blocks.

Glen street—Bluff to Hickory, 1 block.

Protect on Hickory St.

The orders include the laying of necessary curbs and gutter.

Just before adopting the paving program, the council heard a petition, signed by 17, against the paving of Hickory street this year. It was declared that the paving would be a drain on many of the men employed but a portion of the time. This petition was referred to Alderman W. W. Monroe of the Second to be reported back on within two weeks, but by the resolution passed a minute later ordering that Hickory street be paved, proceedings are now under way.

Oiling Is Ordered.

Following are the seven streets ordered treated with oil, petitions having been filed for the work by a majority of the property owners on each:

Park avenue—High to Western avenue.

Galena street—High to Cherry.

Fifth avenue—Glen to Hyatt.

Milton avenue—St. Mary's to East Milwaukee.

Cherry street—Holmes to High.

Glen street—Milton to Garfield.

Prospect avenue—Milton to Milwaukee.

This work was done last year for 17 cents per foot, said Mayor T. H. Welsh, "but with the new bookkeeping system it will be easier to figure the cost this year, so it will probably be less."

Ask for Time.

The sidewalk laying matter was the subject of considerable talk in which Alderman Dulin said: "Let the Fourth and Fifth ride." This, followed requests by aldermen from the Second, Third, Sixth and Seventh that they be given a week or two weeks to look over the streets which called for the laying of 46 sidewalks, the majority of them in their wards.

First ward aldermen got through a resolution ordering the laying of curb and gutter on Madison street, from Mineral Point avenue to River street. C. E. Cochran and Peter Elchacker were given licenses to excavate in the streets and licenses until July 1, 1922, were also granted to the four theaters—Miyers, Beverly, Majestic and Apollo—on the scale of $10 per year.

Lower Bids on County Bridges;
Contract Is Let

Favorable bids were obtained by the Rock county highway committee for the construction of bridges when bids were opened Monday afternoon in the court house.

The contract was awarded to Lentz and Long, concrete contractors of Janesville, with a price of $16 and $17 a cubic yard. Work on the contracts will be started immediately by the successful bidders. This is from $5 to $7 lower than the prices a year ago.

OVERSEAS VETERAN'S
BODY IS RETURNED

Monroe—The body of Sergeant Ernest Miller, the only one of five sons of Mrs. Magdalena Miller who saw service during the World war who died, will be accorded full military honors upon its arrival in Monroe.

Mrs. Miller has received word that her son's body will arrive in New York from overseas May 21. Miller was a member of Co. H. and upon his arrival overseas entered an officers training school and assisted in organizing several new outfits before his death Oct. 27, 1918.

35 CHILDREN TO GIVE OPERETTA

To add funds to the Parent-Teachers association of the Jefferson school, the pupils of the model grades of that school will put on an operetta at the training school Wednesday evening, to which everybody is invited. Admission charge of 25 cents will be made. The operetta is "A Rose Dream," and 35 children will participate. A social hour will be spent after the play. Miss Luella Talverson is putting on the production.

SAYS HER SOLDIER HUSBAND DESERTED

One cannot be a soldier and make love at the same time, ruled Justice E. Bentley Beloit, when she filed a complaint for a divorce in the Rock county circuit court Monday afternoon. She charged her husband, Charles H. Bent, with desertion while he was in the service.

They were married March 21, 1918, and resided in Beloit. The husband served during the world war.

TALK ON BONDS

The Rock county finance committee met Monday afternoon at the court house to transact business relating to the sale of the Rock county highway bonds.

Council Sidelights

Would Donate Post.

An offer of C. A. Englow to install a new type of traffic post at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets without charge of the city occasioned a bit of ridicule, and resulted in Alderman J. J. Dulin of the highway committee with the result that the matter was laid over two weeks on his resolution. In his letter to the council, Mr. Englow, a sales manager of the "Jiffy" tire company, addressed to the Janesville chamber of commerce, called attention to the fact that he furnished four "iron policemen" free to the city about a year ago.

"Our new model is the highest efficiency," he said. "We want no part of it, though, because the traffic director made anywhere is manufactured right here in Janesville."

"They certainly needed to make some changes in those posts," said Alderman Dulin. "They were a pain from the start."

Education Costs $18,000.

The board of education spent $18,622 last month, according to the April report received and ordered published. The quarterly report of the water department was accepted, showing a plant valuation of $468,500 and a water output of 1,000,000 gallons.

Endors City Plan.

Majorie Smith was asked in a resolution to appoint a committee of three to meet with the Chamber of Commerce relative to definite adoption of John Nolte's city plan. The matter came up through a request from Alderman F. O. Holman.

"The city plan has certainly borne fruit and, if for no more than a moral obligation, we owe it to the Chamber of Commerce to endorse it," said Mayor Welsh. "The city plan commission will probably draw up specific regulations applicable to Janesville. The petition decried billboards to be "dangerous to life and property" and, as far as I have seen, it is to be discarded and afford protection to disorderly and law-breaking persons," said Mayor Welsh in a five-minute talk on the matter.

Garbage Contract Affirmed.

The council gave confirmation to the contract with Maxfield for handling the garbage situation here for one year for $7,000, the city to furnish the trailers. Mr. Maxfield promised a sum of $1,000 to be paid by him for any damage to the trailers caused by negligence, but not for depreciation.

Appeal to Women.

"The good women of the city are especially asked not to overlook the 'Save Our Youth' appeal at their respective grocery stores so far as we order for the prosperity of our prosperous city we may not withhold the price of a little flour for those most unfortunate who are phans. The business man will find his bank the same silent appeal asking for the price of a sack of Janesville's good flour out of his deposit. The children will have their opportunity at the schools and churches and already good reports are coming from the giving of the children."

Where to Donate.

The following places have been given barrels for the "say it with flour" campaign:

Banks—Rock County National, Bower City, First National, Southern Wisconsin, and Merchants and Savings.

Hotels—Myers and Grand.

Clothing Stores—F. C. Nichols, St. Mary's, St. Peter, Luthers, St. Paul's, German Lutheran, St. John's Evangelical Lutheran, Methodist, Baptist, United Brethren and Presbyterian.

Schools—St. Patrick's, Webster, Lincoln, Adams, Jefferson, Washington, Garfield, Douglas and the High School.

Grocery stores—A. A. Ronsing, W. L. Rogers, Frank O. Samuel, J. M. Sheldon and Son, F. A. Bros.

Taverns—Union, F. L. Wilbur and Co., E. W. Winslow, Wm. Winter and Son, Barnes and Chadderton, Mrs. J. H. Hoener, E. C. Baumann, Baumann and Hamm, Bluff Street Grocery, L. J. Burges, W. L. Carlo, A. A. Chilson, Christensen and Brummond, George D. Cullen, Day-Searliff Co., George E. Cullen, Day-Searliff Co., Dredrick Bros., J. W. Denning, Henry K. Faibisoff, F. J. Fisher, J. M. Hall, J. B. Haviland, Jerry Grocery Co., J. B. Jones, John F. Lynch, Charles M. Michener, J. M. O'Donnell, J. A. Rosenthal.

Business—McDonald's ice cream parlor and the United Cigar store.

Petition for "The Places."

No action was taken toward permitting not preventing D. A. Matteson and Charles Eliley from building a community house and dance hall on the Dick property.

One was, although Mr. Matteson appeared before the council and a petition was presented asking that permission be given to carry out the project.

The petition entered a "protest against the passing of any ordinance or resolution, restraining or limiting the use of property now owned by Matteson-Lindstrom, formerly known as the Dick property, in the First ward, and we believe the proposed use of the property would be advantageous and beneficial rather than detrimental," Mr. Matteson declared the tract comprised 33 acres and that under his proposal, the city would be paid $1,000, he said he would pay $1,000 on the property in addition to $10,000, the balance to be paid in installments.

Petition for "The Places."

No action was taken toward permitting not preventing D. A. Matteson and Charles Eliley from building a community house and dance hall on the Dick property.

One was, although Mr. Matteson appeared before the council and a petition was presented asking that permission be given to carry out the project.

The petition entered a "protest against the passing of any ordinance or resolution, restraining or limiting the use of property now owned by Matteson-Lindstrom, formerly known as the Dick property, in the First ward, and we believe the proposed use of the property would be advantageous and beneficial rather than detrimental," Mr. Matteson declared the tract comprised 33 acres and that under his proposal, the city would be paid $1,000, he said he would pay $1,000 on the property in addition to $10,000, the balance to be paid in installments.

First ward aldermen got through a resolution ordering the laying of curb and gutter on Madison street, from Mineral Point avenue to River street. C. E. Cochran and Peter Elchacker were given licenses to excavate in the streets and licenses until July 1, 1922, were also granted to the four theaters—Miyers, Beverly, Majestic and Apollo—on the scale of $10 per year.

Lower Bids on County Bridges;
Contract Is Let

Favorable bids were obtained by the Rock county highway committee for the construction of bridges when bids were opened Monday afternoon in the court house.

The contract was awarded to Lentz and Long, concrete contractors of Janesville, with a price of $16 and $17 a cubic yard. Work on the contracts will be started immediately by the successful bidders. This is from $5 to $7 lower than the prices a year ago.

OVERSEAS VETERAN'S
BODY IS RETURNED

Monroe—The body of Sergeant Ernest Miller, the only one of five sons of Mrs. Magdalena Miller who saw service during the World war who died, will be accorded full military honors upon its arrival in Monroe.

Mrs. Miller has received word that her son's body will arrive in New York from overseas May 21. Miller was a member of Co. H. and upon his arrival overseas entered an officers training school and assisted in organizing several new outfits before his death Oct. 27, 1918.

35 CHILDREN TO GIVE OPERETTA

To add funds to the Parent-Teachers association of the Jefferson school, the pupils of the model grades of that school will put on an operetta at the training school Wednesday evening, to which everybody is invited. Admission charge of 25 cents will be made. The operetta is "A Rose Dream," and 35 children will participate. A social hour will be spent after the play. Miss Luella Talverson is putting on the production.

SAYS HER SOLDIER HUSBAND DESERTED

One cannot be a soldier and make love at the same time, ruled Justice E. Bentley Beloit, when she filed a complaint for a divorce in the Rock county circuit court Monday afternoon. She charged her husband, Charles H. Bent, with desertion while he was in the service.

They were married March 21, 1918, and resided in Beloit. The husband served during the world war.

TALK ON BONDS

The Rock county finance committee met Monday afternoon at the court house to transact business relating to the sale of the Rock county highway bonds.

PLACE 60 BARRELS TO GATHER MONEY

"Say it With Flour" Campaign for Near East Is Pushed Here.

An appeal is being made in Janesville for contributions to help the starving thousands of Armenians and barrels into which contributions may be dropped have been placed in 60 stores, banks, churches and schools. The Jefferson school kindergarten claims to have filled their barrels of money in the city, having collected $6.

The committee having the work in charge.

No Action on Bills.

Another postponement was taken in acting on bills concerning the city's expenses for the ensuing year. Three were received, from W. J. Flaherty, Boner Oil Co., and Burges & Broege, all for $1500 from the city for car expenses.

Endorse City Plan.

Majorie Smith was asked in a resolution to appoint a committee of three to meet with the Chamber of Commerce relative to definite adoption of John Nolte's city plan. The matter came up through a request from Alderman F. O. Holman.

"The city plan has certainly borne fruit and, if for no more than a moral obligation, we owe it to the Chamber of Commerce to endorse it," said Mayor Welsh.

Appeal to Women.

"The good women of the city are especially asked not to overlook the 'Save Our Youth' appeal at their respective grocery stores so far as we order for the prosperity of our prosperous city we may not withhold the price of a little flour for those most unfortunate who are phans. The business man will find his bank the same silent appeal asking for the price of a sack of Janesville's good flour out of his deposit. The children will have their opportunity at the schools and churches and already good reports are coming from the giving of the children."

Where to Donate.

The following places have been given barrels for the "say it with flour" campaign:

Banks—Rock County National, Bower City, First National, Southern Wisconsin, and Merchants and Savings.

Hotels—Myers and Grand.

Clothing Stores—F. C. Nichols, St. Mary's, St. Peter, Luthers, St. Paul's, German Lutheran, Methodist, Baptist, United Brethren and Presbyterian.

Schools—St. Patrick's, Webster, Lincoln, Adams, Jefferson, Washington, Garfield, Douglas and the High School.

Grocery stores—A. A. Ronsing, W. L. Rogers, Frank O. Samuel, J. M. Sheldon and Son, F. A. Bros.

Taverns—Union, F. L. Wilbur and Co., E. W. Winslow, Wm. Winter and Son, Barnes and Chadderton, Mrs. J. H. Hoener, E. C. Baumann, Baumann and Hamm, Bluff Street Grocery, L. J. Burges, W. L. Carlo, A. A. Chilson, Christensen and Brummond, George D. Cullen, Day-Searliff Co., George E. Cullen, Day-Searliff Co., Dredrick Bros., J. W. Denning

NEWS ABOUT FOLKS

CLUBS
SOCIETY
PERSONALS

SOCIAL EVENTS

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18.

Afternoon—Eller-Smith Wedding.

Div. No. 7, Congregational church—Mrs. McLanahan, Christian Endeavor of Congregational church.

W. C. T. U. at Baptist church.

Ladies Aid of Baptist church—Community Aid—Presbyterian church—Mrs. M. O. Mouat.

Evening—Knepp-Hill wedding.

Model School Operetta at Training school.

Jolly Sixteen at MacFarlane's.

Ladies Night Banquet at M. E. church.

Boy Scouts of Presbyterian church.

Give Pre-Nuptial Party.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buggs, 512 South Academy street, gave a pre-nuptial party Saturday evening complimentary to Miss Gertrude Murphy, who will make her home in Milwaukee when she marries on May 19. A dinner was served at 7 o'clock. Pink roses and sweet peas were the decorations. "Five Hundred" was played following the dinner, the prizes going to Mrs. Carl Ash and Mrs. Fred Jungblut. A special gift was presented to Miss Murphy.

Bride-to-be Honored.—Miss Maudie Eastman, 204 North Second street, entertained 28 of her friends at the Jamesville Center Monday evening in honor of Miss Cecil Brigham, who is to be a June bride. The evening was spent playing cards. A dainty lunch was served at 10 o'clock. Miss Brigham received many gifts.

Many Attend School Exposition.—The school exposition that was being held at the Dr. Charles Sutherland home, 216 South Division street, was attended by 500 school children, and teachers, parents, afternoon and evening. The exposition, which was planned and arranged by several Jefferson school children, shows many different subjects taught at the school. Because of the opera that is to be given at the Training School Tuesday evening, the exposition will not be open until later.

Men of League to Meet.—The Men's League of the St. Paul's Lutheran church will meet in the school room at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Meet With Mrs. Mount.—The women of the Community Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. O. Mouat, 214 South Wisconsin street.

Eller-Smith Wedding.—The wedding of Miss Adele Lorene Eller and Maurice Warner Smith will take place at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the home of the bride, 1310 Mineral Point avenue.

Host to Bridal Party.—Roy Eller, 1310 Mineral Point avenue, was host Monday evening to the members of the Eller-Smith bridal party. A dinner was served at the Standard hotel, placed on the table with a tablecloth attractive with Opelia roses and smiles. The guests from out-of-the-city were: Miss Kenneth Catchpole, Kansas City, and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Manitoba.

Club Is Entertained.—Miss Doris Johnson and Miss Mary Godfrey entertained the F. O. P. club for their annual party Sunday at the downtown cafe. After the dinner the party attended the theater. The party was complimented to Miss Godfrey, who has been with the Samson Tractor company, and who left Tuesday for her home in Mauiston, Wis.

Mrs. Fatzinger Is Hostess.—Mrs. G. E. Fatzinger, 412 Ravine street, invited the members of the Eastern Star Fraternal club to her home Monday. Cards were played at three tables. Mrs. Louis Amerpohl taking the prize. At half past five the hostess served a supper.

To Attend Graduation.—Mrs. Louis Amerpohl, Clark street, and daughter, Mrs. George S. Metcalf, North Washington street, will go to Chicago Wednesday to attend the graduation exercises at the Presbyterian hospital. Miss Grace Amerpohl is to be graduated as a trained nurse.

George McKay Is Host—George M. McKay, East street S., gave a dinner party at the R. M. R. cottage at Lake Koskoshon, Sunday. Places were laid for six.

Bridge Players to Go to Madison.—The local members of the Janesville-Madison bridge whist team will go to Madison Thursday to play the monthly contest games. The players will be the guests of Mrs. Stanley C. Hanks in Madison.

N. P. S. to be Entertained.—The Young People's society, Trinity church, will be entertained at 7:30 Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William F. Sayles, Court street. Mrs. Sayles will be assisted as hostess by Mr. Herbert Ford.

Mrs. McVicker Entertains Club.—Mrs. J. J. McVicker, 408 South Third street, was hostess Monday to eight women who are members of a bridge club. At the close of the afternoon a supper was served.

Jolly Sixteen to Meet.—The Jolly Sixteen club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacFarlane, 1102 Milwaukee avenue.

Enterprise Card Club.—Mrs. Philip Peters, 306 Prospect avenue, entertained two table bridge club at her home Monday evening. A lunch was served at 10 o'clock.

Have Card Party.—A successful card party was sponsored by Arcia No. 5 of the St. Patrick's church at the new school hall Monday evening. 250 attending. The first prize in "Five Hundred" was won by Mrs. Keeley, the second by Mrs. Custer, the third by Mrs. Moyer. First prize in bridge went to Mrs. McGlynn, second to John Timmons while the prize winners for "Forty-Five" were Joseph Denning and John McCue. Mrs. Patrick Stein was the winner of the lucky number. Refreshments were served.

Junior Girls Have Party.—The Junior Girls club of the St. Peter's Lutheran church met Monday evening in the auditorium of the church. After the usual business meeting refreshments were served, the guests being seated on one long table, the centerpiece for which was a large white birthday cake in honor of the 14th

The Gazette Travel Bureau Will Help You.

The Gazette means for the use of people who wish to travel the country railroad guides—corrected monthly and always available for the use of the public.

If you wish to go anywhere either for pleasure or business, the Gazette Travel Bureau will help you with routes and to plan the trip.

SAYS ADVERTISING
WILL BOOM DAIRY INDUSTRY IN STATECIVIC DINNER TO BE HELD MONDAY
Barn Is Burned
Near DelavanChicago Man to be Speaker at Big C. of C. Booster Gathering at "Y".

Lack of organization and intelligent advertising is alone responsible for any slump in the dairy business, declared speakers at the meeting of the Black-Hill Julian breeders' association, held in Milwaukee.

Human life cannot go without milk and butter, it was declared.

"The time has come when dairy owners must get together and advertise, or be put out of business," said S. T. L. meeting of the union and boys and girls of the public schools will read their essays written for the state contest. This was made part of their school work. A program of special music will be in charge of Mrs. G. W. Allen, assisted by Mrs. John R. Nichols.

Mrs. Lustig Is Hostess.—Mrs. Joseph Lustig, Jr., 521 North Garfield avenue, entertained last Friday evening. Twelve guests were invited complimentary to her guest, Miss Louise Land, Milwaukee, and her sister, Mrs. Clarence Patton, who leaves Wednesday for El Paso, Texas. The prizes for the honoraria were taken by Mr. and Mrs. C. Fuller. Specialized were given to the honoraria. A lunch was served at 10 o'clock, the tables being decorated with tulips and narcissuses. Mr. and Mrs. Lustig also gave a Sunday night luncheon at which covers were laid for six.

Picnic Held Indoors.—Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Wiser, 514 South Second street, opened their home Saturday evening to several friends who had planned a picnic for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loeffelholz, Milwaukee. Owing to the inclement weather, they decided to hold an indoor picnic at the Wiser home.

Banquet at M. E. Church.—The Annual Ladies Night banquet will be held at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the C. M. E. church. A program of music, fun and initiation will be given. This banquet is not limited to church members. Everyone is invited.

Sewing Club Meets.—A sewing club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Sager, Sherman avenue. A tea was served at half after five.

Church Division to Meet.—Mrs. Sue McManus, 58 Harrison street, will entertain Division No. 7, Congregational church Wednesday afternoon.

Alt Society to Meet.—The Ladies Aid society, Baptist church, will hold an all day meeting Wednesday. The women take their lunch and spend the day in church sewing.

PERSONALS

Miss Marcia Noyes, 233 Madison street, left Saturday morning for Pontiac, Mich., where she will visit her brother, Chet Noyes.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Karpoff, motorcyclists, left Saturday for Rockford to spend the week-end with their mother, Mrs. T. U. Joyce, 606 West Eastern avenue, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn and son Albert, motored to this city Saturday from Chicago and spent Sunday here, leaving in the evening accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Glenn, 822 St. Mary's avenue, who will spend a few weeks in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clegg and Mr. and Mrs. William Cook, Milton Junction, were in this city Saturday to visit their brother, Dr. Glenn.

Lauren Tour, who is attending the University of Wisconsin, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bear, 612 Prairie avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, 524 South Third street, and Miss Willis Penning, 1527 Roger Avenue, are spending a few days with Miss Gladys Jacobs, 402 North Franklin street, Appleton. They motored up to Milwaukee and spent the day at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Gackstatter, Magnolia road.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Pounds and son of Youngstown, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Koehler, 234 Park street.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cook, 402 Cherry street, left Saturday for La Crosse where they will spend a week with the former's mother. Mr. Cook has resigned his position at the Parker Pen company and will start as a city mail carrier next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Urias, Oshkosh, for Madison Tuesday morning after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Downs, 449 South Ringold street.

Mrs. Nellie Drongold, Los Angeles, is a guest at the M. T. Green home, 225 North Washington street. Mrs. George Lampert, sis, is well known local actor. He is frequently seen in plays supporting Mary Pickford and other prominent screen artists. His headquarters are at the Los Angeles studios.

Mrs. Frank Peters, 403 South Second street, is home from a visit of several weeks at the home of her daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Doty, Chicago.

Miss E. Louise Williams and nieces Dorothy, Rose and children of Milwaukee have our Forest Park house for a part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Croft, Elm street, have gone to Darlington where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loefelholz, Milwaukee, are visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey, 403 Caroline street.

Mrs. Clarence Fahey and children of Forest Park have just returned from a head-on collision with an automobile which he occupied in a street car. His skull was fractured. Bergenthal obtained pilot's license No. 122 from the National Flying club eight years ago, and as early as 1913 had a reputation as an automobile enthusiast and aviator flying bi-planes through out the country and Canada at country fairs.

at Sturgeon Bay wanted

900 girls and women 18 to 50 years old, no children allowed. Write for information to Co-operative Orchard Co., Sturgeon Bay, Wis.

J.M.BOSTWICK
& SONS.Our Great Spring Carpet and Rug Sale Will Continue
All This Week

If you have not already taken advantage of this Great Bargain Event—Come this week—Hundreds of standard Rugs at tremendous Savings. All quality—No Seconds in this sale. Every Rug the Big Store quality.

Standard Axminster Rugs 9x12 feet at only $39.75

Wilton Velvet Rugs

A Rug for hard wear, Rich Persian designs and colors. Your choice of many excellent patterns, 9x12 ft. $49.50

Seamless. Now at $49.50

Royal Wilton Rugs

Extra heavy, fine quality Rugs 9x12 ft. size at $69.50

Colonial Rag Rugs 25x50 inch at $1.00

These come in pretty hit-or-miss effects. The old kind 25x50 in. size at $1.00 EACH

A good way to find out whether tea and coffee are hurting you is to stop using them for ten days, and drink Postum Cereal

There's a Reason

The Gazette Travel Bureau Will Help You.

The Gazette means for the use of people who wish to travel the country railroad guides—corrected monthly and always available for the use of the public.

If you wish to go anywhere either for pleasure or business, the Gazette Travel Bureau will help you with routes and to plan the trip.

The Gazette Travel Bureau Will Help You.

The Gazette Travel Bureau

U. S. IS SILENT ON SILESIAN ISSUE

Trouble Between British and French Gives Great Concern Here.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington.—Trouble between Great Britain and France gives great concern here not because of any fear that the two countries will come into actual physical conflict but because the controversy may keep the European mind alog over war and its implications instead of peace and its economic benefits.

America's decision to keep hands off the Silesian quarrel can not be taken literally.

Of course, President Harding and Secretary Hughes do not want to mix in what might be for the moment strictly European quarrel but American interest in what is going on is just as strong as it was when Senator Knox, leader of the irreconcilables, inserted in the now famous paragraph five of his peace resolution a declaration that the United States would view with grave concern anything that threatened to upset the peace of the world.

Hope-Fire-Up W.H. Due Out.

So long as the dispute over the possession of Upper Silesia is a territorial squabble between European nations and gives no sign of growing into a general war, America looks on with nothing. But the possibility that the United States might be asked to mediate or might even be urged to tender her good offices is being discussed as a phase of the situation that would bring about a change of attitude at once.

The United States government appears hopeful that the French and British will get over their long火up just as they have so many times in the past. Official Washington discloses little talk of a possible war between France and Britain as some of the French dispatches have hinted in order to impress England with the serious effect of Prime Minister Lloyd George's utterances.

At bottom the belief here is that aside from the conflicting interests of France and Germany in the Silesian conflict, domestic politics is playing a far greater part in France and Britain than anything else and that when the usual parliamentary crises are passed the European nations will slowly but surely resolve the Silesian problems they have many another tangled controversy growing out of the European war.

Briand to Face Parliament.

Premier Briand, head of the French government, this week. Since the French chamber last met, the Germans have accepted the reparation proposals of the allies and the occupation of the Ruhr on which the French military party had set its heart is for the moment retarded.

What has Premier Briand to offer? Only another German promise to pay. The opposition in France to Briand would have held up that process to secure payment. Premier Briand would have had difficulty holding his majority in the French parliament. But Prime Minister Lloyd George has handled Premier Briand another issue. He has criticized France and said that he'd prefer that German troops put down the uprising in Silesia instead of allied troops. He has hinted that the Polish insurgents are encouraged by the French troops in Silesia. There is an issue around which all France can rally. Peeling against Germany can always be employed as a parliamentary maneuver.

France doesn't want to give Germany any opportunity to use troops for anything. In a nutshell, Premier Briand will get a handsome vote of confidence and retain power—thanks to the timely use he has made of the Lloyd George speech.

Lloyd George Meets Foreign.

Meanwhile in England, the prime minister has mended his political fences too. Knowing the softness of the British laborites for Germany, the British prime minister wins to his side more and more of the labor vote by his open opposition to what the British laborites terms French militarism. Domestic politics again comes into prominence. As the political situation in England continues to be not small factor either France cannot rely upon active support from Pres. Harding who doesn't want to give the "irreconcilables" any further "offense" than already given in the decision to participate in the allied councils. The wealthiest and most powerful nation of all—the United States—is held at bay by domestic considerations. This means that Pres. George feels free to go ahead without fear of the effects of any Franco-American entente.

U.S. Discreetly Silent.

As for sympathy here, officials here maintain a discreet silence. Obviously they want Germany not to lose too much of her resources and if they felt that the loss of the Silesian coal fields would so weaken German industry as to interfere with the ability to meet fulfillment of the reparation demands, reparation last week there would be no hesitation about expressing an opinion. But in the absence of a definite disposition of territory, the major question dealing with the effect on Germany's power to pay reparations is still in the background and gives America no opportunity for the use of moral suasion. There is a haze over facts as to the future—the immediate causes of the rupture. Did France encourage the Polish insurgents? Did Germany bring about the uprising through inflammatory news articles? Does France want to dismember Germany so that she will be economically prostrated while France goes ahead? All these questions are being asked here. And Secretary Hughes has significantly called for the documents. Thus far the American government merely seeks the facts and expresses no opinions.

Over 50 Applicants to Take Plumbers Exam

Madison.—Candidates for license as master and journeyman plumbers were notified Saturday of the state examinations to be held in Milwaukee and Madison on May 25 by the state board of examiners. There are between 50 and 75 applicants in prospect.

CONDENSED NEWS

Detroit.—Fire destroyed five acres of sheds at the Packard airplane test field, with a loss estimated at $100,000.

Constantinople.—The Turkish nationalistic government ratified a treaty with Soviet Russia.

AT WASHINGTON

The treasury is holding $8,000,000 of uncollected interim bond interest.

The Clinton minister announced the plan for immediate liquidation of the trust instrument of the Chilean bonds in America.

Secretary Hoover has selected an advisory board of seven to aid in the solution of the housing problem.

Evansville

Mrs. L. F. Miller, Phone 206-J.
Correspondent.

COUNTY AGENT TO HAVE BUSY WEEK

Four Meetings Scheduled
Liming Attracts Much Attention.

Tuesday—Farm Bureau and Milk Producers' meeting in Evansville; Soil Survey in Union township.

Wednesday—Schools to be visited in Newark township.

Thursday—Program on agriculture at Johnstown meeting.

Friday—Farm meeting in Town Line school.

Rock county farmers continue in their drive to use more lime stone to correct soil acidity for growing larger crops and sturdier herbage. Union township with many farmers interested has furthered the campaign and is experiencing results.

The township acidity test is something novel. Every 40 acres of soil is tested to determine the exact needs of the small plots. Union township farmers and others are finding out through practical demonstrations that lime pays.

In a sweet clover field near Evansville lime was applied to the plants in the field. A strip without lime was left. The limed part of the field now has an excellent stand of sweet clover, a legume crop, while the strip without lime is without a stand.

Orie Steel, has carried out the demonstration, which shows to the growers that it is practical. They don't have to take anyone's word about the value of lime—they can see the results in the field.

Last year Mr. Steel, in cooperation with W. C. Miles and T. P. Wolf, purchased a large quantity of crushed lime.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, Jacksonville, visited their daughter, Mrs. E. P. Whitton and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alrich and children were Sunday guests at the Fred Kuehl home.

Mrs. H. A. Knapp went to Chicago

Tuesday to attend the graduation exercises of nurses from the Presbyterian Hospital, and returned home via Miss Edna Knapp, is one of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, Jacksonville, visited their daughter, Mrs. E. P. Whitton and family Sunday.

George Knight spent Sunday at the C. F. Brunson home.

Peter Goehl and family of Milton Junction spent Sunday with his brother, Charles Goehl and family.

James Allen, a member of the naval reserves, at the Great Lakes on a day cruise.

G. L. Parkins and family attended the funeral of a relative in Daytona Friday.

Wednesday evening there will be a free picture show at the opera house, given under the auspices of the local Order of Moose. It will show the Moose home at Moosahill, Ill., where the orphaned children of the order are cared for as also are crippled soldiers of the late war.

Mr. William Hyne went to Janesville Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Johnson, and family, until Thursday, when she will leave for Rome, N. Y., where she will visit relatives and friends. Mrs. Hyne expects to spend Decoration day with her son, Charles Hyne, who attends Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Basye spent Sunday in Madison with their son, Harry Basye, and wife.

Miss Ernest Dennis—visited friends in Oregon Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Babcock's sale will be held at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at her home on South Madison street.

Eighty-four years old and still planting her own garden, is the record of Mrs. Libby Groom, widow of Mrs. Edward Groom, the slightly wimpy Mrs. Charles Goehl, better known as "Grandma Libby," has just finished her spring planting and last Friday she painted the floor of her kitchen.

Town Topics

Friends of Everett Harper, who operates the boat livery to Riverside park and other points along Rock river, are wondering what he is going to do with the boathouse he has just completed. There will either have to be rubber sides put on it or else it will have to be rebuilt because they say it is too small to allow the boat to float when it was built to order. It is declared to be just six inches too narrow, despite plans drawn for it and considerable money spent in its erection.

STATE EXAMS TO BE GIVEN HERE JUNE 4

Civil service examinations for both men and women for positions in state institutions as stenographers, typists and dictaphone operators will be given before M. A. Kampflein, at the Janesville postoffice Saturday, June 4, according to the announcement received this week by Postmaster J. J. Cunningham.

SHARON

[By Gazette Correspondent] Sharon—The Mission Study class of the Lutheran church met Friday night at the home of Mrs. Ervin and Mrs. Kahl. Refreshments were made after a future work.

There were 26 members present. The High school baseball team went to East Troy and played the High school there. Sharon won 12 to 6. Mrs. Florence Chester has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd-Tarr and husband at Morris, Ill., returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Daniels and the Misses Kitty and Nettie Daniels spent Saturday in Janesville—Mrs. George Phillips spent Saturday with relatives in Fullerton—Mrs. Will Harris, Chicago, came Saturday for a visit at the Kima Conley home—Miss Myrtle Johnson, who was called to her home in Mt. Horeb by the illness and death of her sister, returned to Marion Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman—Mrs. Bla Stiles entertained several visitors Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Madeline Sill of Chicago—Mrs. Charles Shager and the Misses Florence and Tina Engelhardt were Walworth visitors Friday—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bigelow and J. Sherman spent Sunday at Delavan Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Palmer and daughter Dorothy of Fontana, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hyde—The Mission band of the Lutheran church met Saturday afternoon at the church.

After the lesson which was in charge of Miss R. E. Rector, refreshments were served by Lillian and Leone Peters and Evelyn Roth.

CONDENSED NEWS

Detroit.—Fire destroyed five acres of sheds at the Packard airplane test field, with a loss estimated at $100,000.

Constantinople.—The Turkish nationalistic government ratified a treaty with Soviet Russia.

AT WASHINGTON

The treasury is holding $8,000,000 of uncollected interim bond interest.

The Clinton minister announced the plan for immediate liquidation of the trust instrument of the Chilean bonds in America.

Secretary Hoover has selected an advisory board of seven to aid in the solution of the housing problem.

REDUCED PRICES

SHELDON HARDWARE CO.

40 S. Main Street

LOCAL "TIN CAN" TOURISTS RETURN FROM LONG TRIP

Home from 7,000 mile "tin can" tour of the balmy South, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Decker, Hilton avenue—have brought with them tales of the luxuries and general accommodations of scores of tourist camps which they visited.

"We traveled in true 'tin can' style with our tent, cooking outfit and other equipment and had a great time," said Mr. Decker, Monday. "Most of the cities in the South now have tourist camps open without any charge whatsoever to all automobile tourists. We stayed for three weeks at the camp which is right in the middle of the country and is equipped with electricity, gas and water supplied with a caretaker to see that the tourists are taken care of fully. There were 1,500 people there."

Mr. and Mrs. Decker and daughter, Mrs. Guy Briggs and Miss Ann Karlsberg left Janesville, November 2, and spent six and one-half months away from home. They returned Saturday, after having spent considerable time in Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and Mississippi.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

A Marquette paper states that the "Janesville plan" of a building and loan association is being used as a model by the city of Milwaukee.

MUCH INTEREST IN MILK TEST CASE

Jury Hears Testimony in Case Against Local Restaurant

OBITUARY

Patrick Feeney
The funeral of Patrick Feeney was held Tuesday morning from St. Mary's church. Father Olson celebrated high mass and delivered the sermon. Interment was made in Mt. Olivet cemetery with Father Olson officiating. The pall-bearers were Thomas Murphy, Thomas Kehoe, John Dooley, John Roach, James Sheridan and James Crane.

Mr. Feeney was not at work for the May-June-Means company at the time of his death as stated in Monday's Gazette. He had done no active work for some years.

William Gerald Sullivan
Funeral services for William Gerald Sullivan were held at the grave at Mt. Olivet cemetery Tuesday morning at ten o'clock. Rev. Francis Witterman officiated. Rev. freshman class of the high school attended in a body.

You should not be without a Cozy Glow Heater. It will keep the dampness out of your home. Janesville Electric Co.

Lodge News

Equitable Fraternal Union Lodge will hold their regular meeting Wednesday night in Eagles' Annex hall. After the regular order of business a light lunch will be served and games played. All members are requested to attend. By order of entertainment committee.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the G. E. G. will meet Thursday evening in the Terpsichorean hall. There will be a dance following the business meeting.

The Eastern Star Study class will meet in the Masonic Temple at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. There will be election of officers.

Western Star, No. 14, F. & A. M. will meet at regular communication at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. Work in the F. C. Degree visiting brothers welcome.

Cozy Glow Heaters are a necessity these cool mornings. Don't be without one any longer. Janesville Electric Co.

UNIVERSAL TO MOVE

Universal grocery store, South Main street, will move to East Milwaukee street, opposite the Myers theatre building.

REPAINT BUILDING

Work on repainting the Myers building was started Tuesday morning.

Cozy Glow Heaters are the ideal thing for these damp, rainy days. For sale at the Janesville Electric Co.

FRESH Spareribs,
lb. 13c

Fresh Beef Liver,
lb. 15c

Home Made Pork Sausage, lb. 15c.

Pork Loin Roast,
lb. 26c.

Steer Beef Pot Roast,
lb. 25c.

Plate Beef for Stew,
lb. 17c.

Fresh Peaches, lb. 25c Uncolored Japan Tea,
at ..... 38c, 48c, 55c

Bulk Cocnut, lb. .... 45c
A Good Coffee, lb. .... 24c

2 lbs. Good Eating Apples, 25c
None Such Minced Meat pkg. 19c

Large can Fancy Pears, 40c
Large bottle Pure Cider Vinegar

14c
Toilet Paper, roll ..... 5c

EAT VEGETABLES

Fresh Wax Beans 25c lb.

Fresh Green Beans 25c lb.

2 Grass 5c.

2 lbs. Spinach 35c.

Round Red Radishes 10c bch.

Round Tip Radishes 4 bchs.

25c.

Long White Radishes, 2 bchs.

15c.

Long Green Cukes 25c.

Red Ripe Tomatoes 30c lb.

Jumbo Green Peppers 10c.

Parsley 10c bch.

Large bch. Onions 5c.

Bch. Beets, Carrots and Turnips.

New Potatoes and Cabbage.

We Close At Noon Tomorrow.

E. A. ROESLING

Cor. Center & Western Aves.

7 Phones, all 128.

American Power & Light Company

Twenty-year 8% Secured Gold Bonds. Dated May 2, 1921. Due May 1, 1941.

Redeemable on or before May 1, 1926 at 107 1/2, thereafter and on or before May 1, 1931 at 105 and to maturity at 1/2 of 1% less each year.

Interest May 1 and Nov. 1.

$1000, $500, $100.

Actual net earnings for year ending March 31, 1921, were $2,542,417 or 3.87 times total interest charges including this issue.

This company is managed by the Electric Bond and Share Co. which is controlled by the General Electric Co.

Price 95 1/2 to yield 8.15%.

We recommend their purchase as a well secured, conservative bond.

GOLD-STABECK CO.

Minneapolis

C. J. SMITH

Representative

15 W. Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

Join the Chamber of Commerce.

Stop in the Janesville Electric Co. and ask to see the Cozy Glow Heater. It is just what you need for this cool weather.

FORM STOLEN

A 1920 Ford touring car was stolen in East Troy Sunday night, police here were advised Tuesday.

Stop in the Janesville Electric Co.

and ask to see the Cozy Glow Heater. It is just what you need for this cool weather.

Boy Scouts in Exhibition

A demonstration of the work of the Boy Scouts of Janesville will be given in Loath's store window by the Janesville troop Wednesday evening. Harry R. Dutcher, scoutmaster with Father Olson celebrating high mass and delivered the sermon. Interment was made in Mt. Olivet cemetery with Father Olson officiating. The pall-bearers were Thomas Murphy, Thomas Kehoe, John Dooley, John Roach, James Sheridan and James Crane.

Mr. Feeney was not at work for the May-June-Means company at the time of his death as stated in Monday's Gazette. He had done no active work for some years.

William Gerald Sullivan
Funeral services for William Gerald Sullivan were held at the grave at Mt. Olivet cemetery Tuesday morning at ten o'clock. Rev. Francis Witterman officiated. Rev. freshman class of the high school attended in a body.

You should not be without a Cozy Glow Heater. It will keep the dampness out of your home. Janesville Electric Co.

Lodge News

Equitable Fraternal Union Lodge will hold their regular meeting Wednesday night in Eagles' Annex hall. After the regular order of business a light lunch will be served and games played. All members are requested to attend. By order of entertainment committee.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the G. E. G. will meet Thursday evening in the Terpsichorean hall. There will be a dance following the business meeting.

The Eastern Star Study class will meet in the Masonic Temple at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. There will be election of officers.

Western Star, No. 14, F. & A. M. will meet at regular communication at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. Work in the F. C. Degree visiting brothers welcome.

Cozy Glow Heaters are a necessity these cool mornings. Don't be without one any longer. Janesville Electric Co.

UNIVERSAL TO MOVE

Universal grocery store, South Main street, will move to East Milwaukee street, opposite the Myers theatre building.

REPAINT BUILDING

Work on repainting the Myers building was started Tuesday morning.

Cozy Glow Heaters are the ideal thing for these damp, rainy days. For sale at the Janesville Electric Co.

FRESH SPARERIBS

Lb. 12 1/2c

Fresh Pig Hocks ... 10c

Armour's Sauer Kraut, can ..... 20c

Home Made Pig Pork

Sausage, bulk and link

J. F. SCHOOFF

14 S. River St.

Bell 16. R. C. 982.

E. A. ROESLING

East End Racine St. Bridge.

CASH & CARRY STORE

Pealed Peaches, lb. 25c

Uncolored Japan Tea, at ..... 38c, 48c, 55c

Bulk Cocnut, lb. .... 45c

A Good Coffee, lb. .... 24c

2 lbs. Good Eating Apples, 25c

None Such Minced Meat pkg. 19c

Large can Fancy Pears, 40c

Large bottle Pure Cider Vinegar

14c

Toilet Paper, roll ..... 5c

EAT VEGETABLES

Fresh Wax Beans 25c lb.

Fresh Green Beans 25c lb.

2 Grass 5c.

2 lbs. Spinach 35c.

Round Red Radishes 10c bch.

Round Tip Radishes 4 bchs.

25c.

Long White Radishes, 2 bchs.

15c.

Long Green Cukes 25c.

Red Ripe Tomatoes 30c lb.

Jumbo Green Peppers 10c.

Parsley 10c bch.

Large bch. Onions 5c.

Bch. Beets, Carrots and Turnips.

New Potatoes and Cabbage.

We Close At Noon Tomorrow.

E. A. ROESLING

Cor. Center & Western Aves.

7 Phones, all 128.

American Power & Light Company

Twenty-year 8% Secured

Gold Bonds. Dated May 2,

1921. Due May 1, 1941.

Redeemable on or before

May 1, 1926 at 107 1/2, thereafter and on or before

May 1, 1931 at 105 and to maturity at 1/2 of 1% less each year.

Interest May 1 and Nov. 1.

$1000, $500, $100.

Actual net earnings for year ending March 31,

1921, were $2,542,417 or

3.87 times total interest charges including this issue.

This company is managed by the Electric Bond and Share Co. which is controlled by the General Electric Co.

Price 95 1/2 to yield 8.15%.

We recommend their purchase as a well secured,

The Janesville Gazette

GAZETTE PRINTING COMPANY, Owners.
Harry H. Blies, Publisher, Stephen Hollis, Editor.
202-204 E. Milwaukee St.

Entered at the Postoffice at Janesville, Wis., as Second Class Mail Matter.

Full Length Wire News Report by Associated Press.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By carrier in Janesville, 10c week; $7.50 per year.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also local news published herein.

The Gazette prints freely of events when they are news. The following items are chargeable at the rate of 20 cents a count line, average 5 words to the line: Obituaries; Cards of Thanks; Notices of any kind where a charge is made to the public.

THE GAZETTE'S PLATFORM.

More and better houses. Curbing the rent protection.

Open roads in the country 300 days a year.
More pavilions and more public house.

More parks and playgrounds.

Make the city a place of welcome to visitors and new residents and not for their exploitation.

Build the hotel for Janesville in 1921.

Provide entertainment place and music for the people all the year.

Provide a camp for the auto tourists who come here.

Continue the paving of Janesville streets until all are completed.

ABOUT RIVERSIDE PARK PURCHASE.

It is well that the council postponed the acceptance or rejection of the contract for the purchase of Riverside Park property for two weeks. Each angle should be gone over. The council is the responsible body in the city government and is both the conservator of the public funds as well as the far-looking body that must consider more than mere matters of the moment. We need a park for Janesville. We have needed it some time. It should be large, accommodating all the people, be arranged for base ball, tennis, track meets, be an athletic field as well as a recreation ground, open to everybody, have no strings attached, be well-conducted, and in every sense of the word, the people's property.

The city plan commission has been going ahead endeavoring to carry out the plan. The zoning law is a hind nut to crack. There is a great acreage of land, practically unusable along the river that it was hoped would be given to the city for the purpose of completing the plan for boulevard and drives. Riverside at one end of the system with its beautiful river frontage, its general attractiveness, and its wooded hillside, and its accessibility, its possibilities for landscaping and roads, has been selected for the big place of recreation. The council has the plan and the proposal in front of it. Apparently the question of a park is a matter of details to be worked out, and the people have both faith and hope that it will be done for the benefit of both the present and future generations.

Europe may have fewer mosquitoes but the plebiscite is just as bothersome.

NEW YORK'S MOVING PICTURE CENSORSHIP.

The governor of New York has signed the moving picture censorship bill. As New York is a center of the moving picture industry from the standpoint of distribution and advertising, the consequences of the measure may be far reaching. In order to be salable and releaseable in New York the films must pass the censorship there and audiences elsewhere will be benefited without added state and local censorship. The fees for the examination of films it is believed will net the state $1,000,000 annually. Educational films and those for charitable, religious and scientific purposes are exempt. Court appeal is allowed. Posters and banners or other advertising matter in connection with the motion picture industry which is "indecent, immoral, inhuman, sacrilegious or of such character that its exhibition would tend to corrupt morals, or incite crime," are placed under the ban of the law.

The bill followed a long series of hearings by the general public, of persons engaged in sociological work, of moving picture producers and theater owners. The producers asked that they be given a year to "clean-up" and cut out the nastiness and the sex play which they admitted was bad and which, were the law to pass would cost them the loss of a fortune as the films for many such plays were already either made or under way at enormous expense. But that seemed to have the effect of inciting immediate action. If things were as bad as all that the time to clean up, thought the legislature, was right now. And now the bill is a law and we will see how the producer reforms.

Chorus by the coal man and the weather man: "Keep the home fires burning."

MR. EDISON AND THE COLLEGE MAN.

Mr. Edison, once a newsboy, greatest of modern electric wizards, has stirred up both serious consideration and created a gay day among newspapers and magazines, by his declaration that the college man is unfit for industrial life. He bases this on a series of questions which the college men, quizzed, could not answer. "Where does shellac come from?" asks Mr. Edison. The harried college man, cannot say. "Throw him out," says Mr. Edison, "and bring on another." It comes the youth bearing his diploma and a head full of signals used in the last football game. "What is ramie?" asks Edison. Silence. He also hits the concrete outside the office. There are 73 questions much like these. "Some are simple like 'What is the capital of Alabama?'"

Of these questions the average man, college bred or not, will hardly answer one-half. What Mr. Edison wants is a walking encyclopedia, a book of facts. He would be overwhelmed by the saloon-keeper of Erie, Pa., who learned the whole dictionary and was half through a Gazetteer when he died. Can Mr. Edison answer the question, "What is a morganatic marriage?" as readily as the college man who had one hand, "Chicken-a-king?"

Let us ask Mr. Edison, "What is dragon's blood and its use?" "What is the function of the verge spring on a linotype?" "What is the cocculus indicus?" "In what county of the United States is most Swiss-cheese made?"

Shall we say that, because Mr. Edison might not answer these questions quickly, he is a failure and unfit to invent the world's marvels in electric forces?

Instead of asking where and when Napoleon was born, why not ask what influence Napoleon had on European history and the affairs of the

Waste of Congressional Time.

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, D. C.—The old evil of permitting defected Members of Congress to continue to sit and enact the nation's laws for four months after their successors have been elected is again causing a great deal of discussion in Congress. Ordinarily, this discussion is revived every two years, during the pre-election campaigns. The fact that it is now under discussion at the beginning of a new administration, is taken as an indication that there is a better chance than ever before of changing the existing law, and remedying the difficulty.

Another thing which is condemned almost unanimously by public men, but which has never been changed is that a newly elected President does not take office until four months, sometimes a day, from the date of his election. But this occurs only once in four years, and often only once in eight years. Therefore, despite the greater importance of the presidential position, the situation as it affects Congress is generally regarded by Members of that body as in more vital need of remedy by legislation.

There is a widespread belief that an amendment to the Constitution would be needed to change the convention date of Congress. This is not so, and is proved by the simple words of the Constitution itself. The second paragraph of Section 4, Article 1, provides:

"The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day."

"They" refer to the Members of Congress. It is generally conceded that the meeting date of Congress can, by authority of this section of the Constitution, be changed to any time the majority of its Members may select, if the President approves of the change.

One of the greatest objections to the present system is that under ordinary conditions, a Member of the House or Senate elected in November of one year does not take his seat in Congress until December of the following year. In the case of Members of the House, this leaves them but fifteen months before they must be up for reelection. It has worked out in hundreds of cases that newly elected Members of the House, coming to Washington for the first time under such conditions, have to give nearly all of their time to the business of politics in order to keep their coveted positions. Their strictly congressional duties naturally suffer from this neglect, and the whole country is the loser.

Another objection often brought forward is that Members of the House and Senate continue to serve for four months after their defeat at the polls. When this is combined with an overturn of the party holding the executive power, it has always resulted in the Government being practically dead until after the inauguration of the new President and the convening of the new Congress. A case in point has just occurred. While there was, of course, a Republican majority in both branches of the Congress, this majority was materially increased on both sides of the Capitol as a result of the elections last November. Also, the Democratic aspirant for the Presidency was overwhelmingly defeated.

With this expression of the will of the American people registered, the wailing Wilson administration was forced to sit and twiddle its thumbs until March fourth. Not until then could the cogs of the Governmental machinery start again. A parallel situation developed when Woodrow Wilson was first elected. The then President, William Howard Taft, feeling an obligation not to embarrass the man who would succeed him, was forced to sit with idle hands, despite the fact that the Mexican situation was then an acute matter of foreign policy.

The origin of the long wait between the election of a President and the time of his taking office dates back to the beginning of the nation. After the thirteen original colonies freed themselves from British rule and formed the United States of America, it was found that the territory of the new nation was so vast and conditions of travel so primitive that a considerable time was necessary to travel to the Capital from the more remote regions. For that reason, the elaborate system for the election of the President and Vice President was built up.

This system, still in operation, provided that electors for President should be chosen on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November at intervals of four years. This is still the election day.

The next step is the meeting of the electors on the second Monday in January following the election. They convoke in the various state capitals. These are the people who actually vote for the President and Vice President.

Three reports are made of the results of these meetings of the electors. From each state capital, one report is sent to the Congress of the United States by special messenger. A second report is forwarded to Congress by mail. The third report in each case is filed with the United States District Judge presiding in the various districts in which the state capitals lie. The original purpose of this was to insure a record of the action of the electors in each state being preserved. If anything happened to the special messenger from any state, there would be the attested record of the electors' action which would reach Congress by mail. Should both records be lost, the record filed with the District Judge at the state capital would then be conveyed to Washington as the official record for that state.

The reason for building up this elaborate system was the difficulty of communication and transportation in the early days of the nation. Even then, the territory of the country extended west of the Appalachian Mountains. Roads were of the crudest sort. The only means of travel was horseback or in horse drawn vehicles.

This condition existed for a great many years. The steamboat was not invented by Fulton until 1807, and did not come into general use as a common carrier for years afterwards. Even when it did, it was of assistance only to a portion of the new nation.

The locomotive followed in 1830. After its perfection, and railroads were built across the mountains, the difficulties of travel remained, and no one appeared to Congress for changing the meeting date.

Now these barriers to a speedier convention of Congress after its election have disappeared. With the perfection of railroad and steamship systems, and modern methods of communicating news, the summoning of a special session of Congress is known all over the country today in a few hours.

An idea of the state of the roads, the only channels of travel in the early days of the Republic, may be gathered from the correspondence of John Quincy Adams, when he was President. He records that once, traveling along Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington between the Capitol and the White House, his carriage overturned, greatly ruffling his executive dignity. On another occasion it is recorded that President Adams attempted to reach the Capitol, but found the main thoroughfare of the Capital of the nation in such condition that he was forced to return to his official residence, "With Pennsylvania Avenue, a city street, in this condition, travel between western Pennsylvania for instance, and Washington, was often a slow and uncertain undertaking."

Of these questions the average man, college bred or not, will hardly answer one-half. What Mr. Edison wants is a walking encyclopedia, a book of facts. He would be overwhelmed by the saloon-keeper of Erie, Pa., who learned the whole dictionary and was half through a Gazetteer when he died. Can Mr. Edison answer the question, "What is a morganatic marriage?" as readily as the college man who had one hand, "Chicken-a-king?"

Let us ask Mr. Edison, "What is dragon's blood and its use?" "What is the function of the verge spring on a linotype?" "What is the cocculus indicus?" "In what county of the United States is most Swiss-cheese made?"

Shall we say that, because Mr. Edison might not answer these questions quickly, he is a failure and unfit to invent the world's marvels in electric forces?

Instead of asking where and when Napoleon was born, why not ask what influence Napoleon had on European history and the affairs of the

JUST FOLKS

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

They who are afraid to fail—
Never venture any risk—
Fear of hurricane or gale—
Keeps them safely where they are;
Timidly their lives are passed,
Dreaming dreams which quickly die,
Answering glory to the last—
With a terror stricken eye.

Glow grows the pioneer—
Many regards the man of might,
And in time the throngs will cheer
Who venture for the right.
But the timid only see—
Dreadful dangers that assail,
And they shun fearfully—
"What if we should chance to fail?"

"We might have to start anew—
We might lose what now we own.
Here we know what we can do.
There the dangers are unknown;
Glory would be sweet to gain,
But the odds of failure chafe,
There are pits to tumble in,
Here we know that we are safe."

Boy of mine, in safety lies—
Only what is commonplace;
They alone to splendor rise—
Who meet failure face to face.
Ask from life no guarantee—
That you shall not suffer pain—
Risk the loss, whatever it be—
For the joy you hope to gain.

You brave enough to try—
For the goal your heart desires,
Keep your hopes full mounting high—
Even though your body tires;
Fall and rise once more to dare—
Fortune's battlements to scale—
What though failure waits you there?
Never be afraid to fail.

(Copyright, 1921, by Edgar A. Guest)

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

BY ROY K. MOULTON

ANATOMICAL.
He was very skinny.
Was this here fellow Jones?
When he sits in a chair
You'd think him sickly bones.
—E. R.

ANOTHER PARADOX.

This appeared on our street today: "Many on the water wagon feel better off." Can you beat it? —Tasker B. Bosworth.

Greenwich Village poet offers $5 reward for the return of his wife.

Either $5 is a lot of money with a Greenwich Village poet or the value of wives has been reduced considerably since the last alimony schedule was announced by the courts.

Who's Who Today

MME. MARIE CURIE.

The visit of Mme. Marie Curie, the quiet French woman who discovered the element radium, to this country has made her one of the prominent figures in the news. Mme. Curie was born in Warsaw in 1867. Her father was a Jew and her mother of Swedish birth. Her father later became a convert to Catholicism.

Her father was a professor of physics, and from her birth year to the little girl, Marie spent much of her time in his laboratory. She was eighteen years old, having passed through the Girls' Gymnasium of Warsaw with honors, she won a scholarship which provided the sum of $20 a month for further study. On this allowance she went to Paris and continued her scientific education, living for the most part in a bleak bread and butter existence, occupying a tiny bare room equipped only with an iron bed and an iron chair and dressing in the dark useful frock and simple but characteristic of the Russian girl students in the French capital and which differentiated them so entirely from their more coquettish French companions.

While a student in his class she met Pierre Curie, a promising young French physicist, who fell in love with her. Although they were very poor, she married him and lived a happy life, devoted to scientific work.

It was in 1903 that Mme. Curie discovered radium during experiments in the analysis of pitchblende which were being conducted by her husband. Although both are equally credited with the discovery, it is generally agreed that the woman was therefore persistent and courageous explorer.

"Other women have been credited with deeper and wider scientific knowledge," says Dr. Robert St. Thomas of Washington, D. C. "There are only five of the Twelve Apostles whose occupations we know. These were Saints Peter and Andrew, and Saints James and John (sons of Zebedee); those were fishermen. St. Matthew, though a Jew, was a tax collector; St. Philip, though a Greek, was a fisherman. St. Thomas is believed to have been a carpenter and St. Paul, a shipbuilder.

Of the remaining five, no one knows anything about their occupations and to credit them with any particular trade would be unprofitable guesswork. We might add that St. Bartholomew is thought to have been a nobleman, St. Jude, a leper, St. Simon Zelotes is thought to have been a Pharisee. It is very remarkable how little we know of any of the apostles save St. Matthew and the first four mentioned."

Q. Where is the largest wireless station?

A. The Lafayette station at Lyons, France, is considered the largest in the world. It employs more men and sends more messages than any other station. It has a wave length of 75,000 meters. The largest station in the United States is at Indianapolis, and its wave length is between 30,000 and 35,000 meters.

Q. Where did the daylight saving measure originate?

A. The daylight saving measure provided that clocks should be moved ahead one hour during spring and summer months and moved back in October. This was to make better use of the light of day in working hours.

The idea originated in England several years ago but did not receive attention until the war when it was adopted as an economic measure by most European countries and finally in 1917 by the United States. After the war this measure was repealed but several states observe it and many others in other states.

Q. What does Jay have the most energy?

A. Jay Gould, the millionaire, is said to have 14,000,000. This is an estimate only, since it would take a person 122,324 days to count the eggs of one turbot, even should he count 24 hours a day.

Q. What is a natural "Jack-in-the-pulpit" and what causes them to form?

A. The "jacks" of lanterns is a plant which generally appears in many places, in which shade and over-shade. Many efforts have been made to discover its cause, but these attempts have failed. One explanation is that the ignis fatuus, to use the scientific name, is due to phosphorescent hydrogen gas, which possesses the property of igniting when it comes in contact with dry atmospheric air.

Q. Has Cannan a soldier settlement?

A. Canada has a soldier settlement board, through which 20,000 men have already been placed on land and 20,000 more have qualified by taking government training.

Q. What does Jay have the most energy?

A. Jay Gould, the millionaire, is said to have 14,000,000. This is an estimate only, since it would take a person 122,324 days to count the eggs of one turbot, even should he count 24 hours a day.

Q. What is the Washington Information Bureau?

A. The Washington Information Bureau of The Daily Gazette has been able to procure another large stock of free educational printed matter for children.

THE GIRL WHO HAD NO CHANCE'

By Marion Rubincam

CHAPTER XXXV.

ANSWERS

For the next few days Ruth had at least a physical rest. Mrs. O'Neil took entire charge of the house. She made herself particularly nice to the people Ruth met, and in promptly paying the bills on a more efficient basis, in some things, Mrs. O'Neil was most efficient, too much so, perhaps, for other people's comfort.

So she took over the house and the meals, and Ruth sat on the porch with her father, reading aloud and enjoying the new book he had brought back with him. Her mother went back and forth dressed in one of the gingham house gowns she had made, and away—a huge figure with dark hair, large brown eyes that were a little hard in expression, and coarse iron-gray hair. Her deep voice reached them from various parts of the house.

Ruth had already started a garden, on a larger scale than usual, since she planned to have "boarders" the next winter, and wanted to cut costs as much as possible. Sometimes she worked in it, with her father giving a little light help. He was not strong and could not do anything strenuous without having a heart attack. But he made the work interesting by his knowledge of plants like, that is Ruth felt each hour in the garden was a lesson in biology.

Nevertheless, for days of comparative rest did not make her look better, as her mother noted with concern. "She needs a complete change," she told Mr. O'Neil, and they planned how she might have one.

"No use sending her to Sarah," they agreed. "It's too hot there in the summer, and the town is dead when the college is closed. She needs a complete change."

"I could send her if she could only go and visit her chum in the city," Mrs. O'Neil determined that this should happen. Meantime, she began going over accounts, the house, the bank—debts, receipts.

One day she called Ruth in to the library. Her face was white, as white as it could be under the naturally brownish tinge of her skin.

"I hate to add this to your worries," she said. "You've done so wonderfully—believe your father and Ruth's mind was freed of that,

"Black-Eyed Susan." It seems to me that you are concealed about your own looks, and do not give the plain girl credit for the charm she must possess. Love goes where it will and you cannot make the young man care for you while his heart goes out to the plain girl. It is not the girl's place to seek a man, and I would advise you to wait until some one shows an interest in you."

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My husband is a traveling man, and I respect every respect. Only a few days ago I found evidence that his belongings which previously had been intimate with some women. I am true to him. How can I make him confess? What shall I do? I can't live knowing such things are going on. WORRIED.

If you happened onto the evidence when taking care of your husband's belongings, mention the fact to him. But if you were searching for trouble when he did not know it, I would advise you to forget about the evidence as nearly as possible. If your husband was intimate with some woman, he is a bad man. And if you were trying to get through your husband's belongings you were dishonest.

Take as light of the matter as possible, because of "scandal" will not increase your husband's love and respect for you. The reason I think it would be well to mention the matter to him, is to give him a chance to vindicate himself.

Believe in your husband as long as you can. Try to keep him by being his sweetheart and companion.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 18. I am falling in love with a young man, older than I am. He tries to give me advice, but I will not listen. Am I right?

It is easy to think that he is trying

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON.

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

"Black-Eyed Susan": It seems to me that you are concealed about your own looks, and do not give the plain girl credit for the charm she must possess. Love goes where it will and you cannot make the young man care for you while his heart goes out to the plain girl. It is not the girl's place to seek a man, and I would advise you to wait until some one shows an interest in you."

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My husband is a traveling man, and I respect every respect. Only a few days ago I found evidence that his belongings which previously had been intimate with some women. I am true to him. How can I make him confess? What shall I do? I can't live knowing such things are going on. WORRIED.

If you happened onto the evidence when taking care of your husband's belongings, mention the fact to him. But if you were searching for trouble when he did not know it, I would advise you to forget about the evidence as nearly as possible. If your husband was intimate with some woman, he is a bad man. And if you were trying to get through your husband's belongings you were dishonest.

Take as light of the matter as possible, because of "scandal" will not increase your husband's love and respect for you. The reason I think it would be well to mention the matter to him, is to give him a chance to vindicate himself.

Believe in your husband as long as you can. Try to keep him by being his sweetheart and companion.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 18. I am falling in love with a young man, older than I am. He tries to give me advice, but I will not listen. Am I right?

It is easy to think that he is trying

The Letters of Tessie and Joe

DEAR JOE:

This afternoon I made my biggest venture in thrift thus far. I bought 30 dozen eggs! No, I'm not going to start an egg orchard or anything like that, I'm merely going to preserve them with some new kind of a self-preserving fluid called Mummo—probably named after the old fashioned mummies. And then when eggs jump up to 70 cents a dozen again I'll use these 30 dozen self-preserved eggs that only cost me 30¢ a dozen and have a hearty laugh at the high cost of living. I'm beginning to understand for the first time now the beauty of the expression, "Self-preservation is the first law of nature."

I was sure the baby was going to spring a new word today—he was so quiet and had such an important and mysterious expression. But after I'd waited about five minutes with inverted breath, the little angel just sneezed. Maybe he was trying to think of a new word and couldn't find merely sneezed to sort of change the subject. So I think it's a symbol that he's going to be very diplomatic.

My cousin Grace's husband, the insurance man, has been after me lately to take our burglar insurance. He says even if I'm not actually robbed, at least I'll have the satisfaction of knowing I'm ready to be at any moment. Of course at present there's not much in the house that a burglar would take a second look at, but if I took out burglar insurance you could make it really stand for something by buying me some jewelry, especially that diamond ring that's been coming my way through so far empty pockets ever since we were first engaged.

Don't be disengaged about bad business Joe. Let's be optimistic and hope the worst is yet to come.

Your cheerful wife,
TESSIE.

The Old Reliable

D. E. WOOD BUTTER CO.

Send or bring us your Milk. Best possible price paid for Butter-Fat. 30 years without a delayed Milk-Check.

Correct Weights,
Correct Test,
Prompt Pay.
"Ship Us Your Cream."

EVANSVILLE,

WISCONSIN.

though there was always the fear that the people in the house might leave and then where would the weekly sum come from?

Then Myra's letter arrived.

"I'm a pig for not writing," she began. "I got no usual excuse after a long time. And you managed to make the house earn enough to feed it all."

"It wasn't much, thanks to Aunt Sarah," Ruth said.

"Still it was wonderful for you to have done it. I think your father is nervous better—physically, of course! Hell never get well."

The girl's face had a little smile.

"But the thing that worries me immediately is this: there's a lot of back water owing on the place. I've been hunting for receipts and haven't found them. But among your father's papers I did find several notices of money due—he said he had paid them. I suppose he did not want to worry me."

"What does it mean?" Ruth was quite ignorant of the sort of things.

"It means that you will have to mortgage the place to pay the taxes."

"A mortgage to her meant something. Emily is selling for Europe, and she had to get her apartment rented first. Gabrielle and I have been doing that for her, and Gabrielle finally found a tenant who will take it furniture and all. We thought we might be able to keep it but it costs so much! Oh, we're getting along, though."

So Gaby and I scoured around looking for houses, but little success.

Ruth should see it—each of us has a bedroom as large as a hat box, and a little living room with a sofa off of which they called a "kitchenette." We took some of Emily's furniture (she loaned some to us) and Gaby had some and we've been buying. It only costs us $20 a month, which is $10 each for rent. I must have larger allowances, and we've set down now, and I've registered at a school, voice culture and dancing, and I'll go on the stage if I can. When we've had some training, then I'll be studying singing and would come home next year and teach!"

But what about Tim? Ruth wondered.

Wednesday—Lost

Household Hints

MENU

Eaten Rhubarb with Grapic, Spanish Omelet, Potato Scones

Puree of Peas, Croutons, Fruit Jelly, Dinner, Sponge Cake

Celeri, Nut Canapes, Broiled Salmon Steak, Parsley Potatoes, Asparagus Grapes Juiced Sherbet

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Spanish Omelet—Brown delicately in a tablespoon of hot bacon fat, half a minced onion and two slices of minced green pepper. Then add three tablespoons of chili sauce and stir until the liquid is almost absorbed.

Prepare the usual egg mixture for omelet, beat the water and yolks separately, then beat all together and then a迅速的 omelet.

Sold over a Spanish potato, folded and browned for a moment on the under side. Serve inverted on a hot platter.

Celeri Nut Canape—Mash to a paste two tablespoons of cream cheese and add a teaspoon of chopped tomato pickle, one tablespoon of chopped peanuts and half a teaspoon of minced canned pimento. Crepe it with water, stuffs of colony, spreading those with a good hollow in each stalk. Fill those with the relish mixture and chill on the ice before serving. Lay on onions or sauteed bread.

Baked Rhubarb with Orange—For baked rhubarb with orange, cut young rhubarb into small pieces and arrange in a casserole with small pieces of orange and generous layers of sugar.

Cover the casserole closely and cook in a moderate oven until the fruit is a rich thick puree.

To Keep Peppers Fresh and Green—

In a strung boiling hot pickle of salt and water and keep it for use.

Hang up dry in bunches, blossom end downward, in a dry attic or store room. For use in soups, stufies, etc.

Tea Clean Carpet and Rug—Sprinkle with common table salt and give them a good sweeping. They will look like new.

When embroidery or lace becomes yellow, boil it in water with a little bluing and the juice of a lemon.

Hardwood or Varnished Woodwork—

Should be first gone over with pure linseed oil and allowed to remain two hours; it is seldom there are no bare places where heat or exposure to sun have not absorbed the oil, and if water is first put onto these they soak and can never be restored.

Oil has stood in sunny water and rub dry. This also applies to oils followed by a good cleaning de-wonders. Waxed surfaces are cleaned with turpentine and waxed.

When the Inside Linings of your garments become yellowed, soak them in a weak solution of soap and water.

Turn them inside out and lay them flat to dry. If they are still yellowed repeat the process.

First—You see it in the cost.

Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in use.

Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your bakenings. They look better—finer grained.

"Safe Milk for INFANTS & INVALIDS"

For Infants, Invalids and Growing Children
The Original Food-Drink for All Ages

NEWS OF SOUTHERN WISCONSIN

WALWORTH

(By Gazette Correspondent)

Walworth—Mrs. E. V. McGuire answered the call for a volunteer to secure funds by popular subscription for suitable flag for the American Legion. Mrs. McGuire has placed subscription papers in various towns where friends of the Legion may reside and lend their offering. Mrs. McGuire expects to make a house to house canvass and have each home represented. Mrs. McGuire's phone number is 194—Mrs. Popp, mother of Mrs. G. C. Blakely, left Saturday for Moline to visit her daughter—Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lacey, Kentucky, arrived here Thursday, looking for a farm, but were unable to locate one.—Mrs. E. A. Clegg, Clinton, Mrs. E. Clegg, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will occupy a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoyt, Harvard, spent the past week at the William Miller home.—The ball game played here Saturday evening was between Walworth and Beloit. The Walworth team won, 10-2.—Miss Esther Kemp—Mrs. Frank Steffenson and little daughter came Saturday from Beloit for a few days visit with her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Edwin C. Dresser is spending some days at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Murton who is seriously ill.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilmore, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as occupying a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoyt, Harvard, spent the past week at the William Miller home.—The ball game played here Saturday evening was between Walworth and Beloit. The Walworth team won, 10-2.—Miss Esther Kemp—Mrs. Frank Steffenson and little daughter came Saturday from Beloit for a few days visit with her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Edwin C. Dresser is spending some days at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Murton who is seriously ill.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilmore, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as occupying a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoyt, Harvard, spent the past week at the William Miller home.—The ball game played here Saturday evening was between Walworth and Beloit. The Walworth team won, 10-2.—Miss Esther Kemp—Mrs. Frank Steffenson and little daughter came Saturday from Beloit for a few days visit with her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Edwin C. Dresser is spending some days at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Murton who is seriously ill.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilmore, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as occupying a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoyt, Harvard, spent the past week at the William Miller home.—The ball game played here Saturday evening was between Walworth and Beloit. The Walworth team won, 10-2.—Miss Esther Kemp—Mrs. Frank Steffenson and little daughter came Saturday from Beloit for a few days visit with her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Edwin C. Dresser is spending some days at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Murton who is seriously ill.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilmore, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as occupying a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoyt, Harvard, spent the past week at the William Miller home.—The ball game played here Saturday evening was between Walworth and Beloit. The Walworth team won, 10-2.—Miss Esther Kemp—Mrs. Frank Steffenson and little daughter came Saturday from Beloit for a few days visit with her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Edwin C. Dresser is spending some days at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Murton who is seriously ill.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilmore, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as occupying a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoyt, Harvard, spent the past week at the William Miller home.—The ball game played here Saturday evening was between Walworth and Beloit. The Walworth team won, 10-2.—Miss Esther Kemp—Mrs. Frank Steffenson and little daughter came Saturday from Beloit for a few days visit with her parents and other friends.—Mrs. Edwin C. Dresser is spending some days at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Murton who is seriously ill.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilmore, Webster, and Clinton friends, were callers at George Huber's Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gibson will be remembered as occupying a portion of the Pangborn flat 8 years ago and assisting Mr. Huber in the meat market.—Mr. and Mrs. E.

The Spoils of the Strong

By ELINOR TALBOT KINCAID

Copyright by Thompson Feature Syndicate.

(Continued from yesterday)
"You see, madam," he continued rapidly, "I agree with Lord Bacon: Love is a nuisance and an impediment to important action."

"But pardon me," he said, "I address. Allow me to recall at once the object of my visit. I have come to confer with you upon a very delicate matter—a matter that concerns my young nephew, Geoffrey Baylor, and your sister-in-law, Mrs. Caroline Delafield."

Evelyn paled.
"Mrs. Delafield is practically a stranger," she said a trifle distantly.

"He waited an instant and began again.
"The present crisis is one that requires to be managed delicately—most delicately."

"What is it that you wish?" she asked huskily.

The Colonel's reply was brief and directly to the point.

"I wish you to make clear to Mrs. Delafield that my estate, which I have recently willed to my nephew, Geoffrey Baylor, will be bestowed only upon a definitely fixed condition!"

"And that condition?"

"That condition is that he shall not marry Mrs. Delafield."

"Possibly—just possibly, you are making a mistake," Evelyn replied, and there may be nothing—noting at all serious between the two. Are you sure that this is not merely suspicion?"

"Suspicion!" he scoffed. All at once he grasped her firmly by the wrist.

"Madam, let me ask you to take a look out of that window."

Still holding her firmly, he wheeled, and drawing her along with him, he moved toward the window.

"That is not suspicion, madam," he said, gravely and grimly, "that is fact."

CHAP. VII.—Maria Douglas

It was two weeks later, and now

Millions Use "Gets-It" For Corns

Stops Pain Instantly—Removes Corns Completely.

Everybody, everywhere, needs to know what millions of people have already learned about "Gets-It," the secret of painless corns.

For some reason Cousin Marshall is violently opposed to Mrs. Delafield. There is only one drawback. Geoffrey, unfortunately, so far as I am concerned, has revealed himself a languid in love. I believe you have met my cousin, Mr. Baylor?" she suddenly asked simply.

"And the plan?" inquired Evelyn, winching a little.

"The plan? Oh, the plan is that I am to marry Geoffrey, of course. You know, the boy is dangerous. I must lose his heart to Mrs. Delafield. I am to circumvent the catastrophe. Please don't look so shocked. Do you think me an altogether dreadful sort of person?" I already feel quite as if we had been racing in the same cradle, so let me proceed."

Evelyn smiled.

"For some reason Cousin Marshall is violently opposed to Mrs. Delafield. There is only one drawback. Geoffrey, unfortunately, so far as I am concerned, has revealed himself a languid in love. I believe you have met my cousin, Mr. Baylor?" she suddenly asked simply.

"Yes, I have met him," said Evelyn.

"I know, because the other morning we were discussing you at the breakfast table. Cousin Geoffrey thinks you beautiful."

"I never told you of my care what anyone thinks of me," Evelyn said, avoiding the young girl's eyes. "Let me thank you, but I must go now. We will meet again soon."

The girl mounted her horse and was off. Evelyn sat, staring into the distance.

Night had descended suddenly. She heard footsteps and something told her that the man approaching in the darkness was Geoffrey. She opened the door and went outside.

But Geoffrey, with a preoccupied air, was riding in a hasty, reaching the spot near where she sat and passed her unheeding. Suddenly, she leaned forward, crying:

"Geoffrey!"

With a quick, sob-like cry that voiced in its wild appeal all the unconscious clinging of her tortured soul to a tie that she herself had severed, his name broke from her.

He paused and "wheelied. As he stood listening and waiting, the Geoffrey of other days seemed to stand again before her in all the splendor of his powerful young manhood. Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree.

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback." His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed. It became low, strained, and she stopped for a few moments with him.

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

There was something almost brutal in his manner, and she was dismayed.

Tactfully she accepted the escort he offered her and they started toward home.

"I have just been meeting your cousin, Miss Douglas," she said, presently, through the recognition of the necessity of some sort of speech between them. "She was passing through here," she added quickly, "and she stopped for a few moments with me."

He turned in sharp surprise. "Maria! Maria! Here at this time of day?"

"It was some time ago," Evelyn said coldly. "She was on horseback."

His face softened. "Oh, on horseback. Well, I'm glad of that."

Her lips all at once curled with a wan smile. "I think her lovely—lovely," she added.

"She is very, very lovely," he said lowly, in his manner slightly changed.

"You spoke of the horse my cousin was riding. Alfred has one of the same pedigree," Mr. Delafield added.

"Then again, his features hardened, and he rode forward in the darkness. He had caught sight of her, sitting in her grass-green gown upon the fallen tree."

But he was the first to break the silence. "Fardon me, Mrs. Merrivether," he said, formally, "but isn't this rather ill-advised? These woods are such your—"

Classified Advertising

ROOMS FOR RENT

CLASSIFIED RATES
5 cents per word per insertion
(Six words to a line)NO AD TAKEN OVER 35¢ OR LESS THAN 3 LINESDISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch, CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date of the first insertion of the ad.Classification.—The Gazette reserves the right to classify all want ads according to its own rules governing classifications.TELEPHONE YOUR WANT ADS
when it is more convenient to do so.
Call 17. All will be mailed to you and is an accommodation service. The Gazette expects payment promptly on receipt of bill. Name do not appear in either the City Directory or Telephone Directory must send cash with their advertisements.

HOTEL PHONES 7.

Want Ad Branches

F. O. Daniels, 939 McKey Blvd.

Ringgold, 511 S. Western Ave.

Carrie's Grocery, 1310 Highland Ave.

Lynch Grocery, Madison &amp; Academy

Sts.

WANT AD REPLIES

At 10:00 o'clock today there were in the Gazette office the following:

2790, 1825, 1916, Box G, 1173, 1718,

1774, 1076, 1074.

SPECIAL NOTICES

ALWAYS

When you think of ? ? ? ? think of C. P. Ebers.

LIVE ANNOUNCEMENTS for sale. Memo Bros.

PRICE REDUCTION on all American Beauty appliances.BROWN BROS.
ELECTRIC SHOP

ROTH PHONES

RAZORS HONED—See Photo Bros.

SPECIAL—We serve a delicious everyday meal to the business man that stays at the hotel.WE SERVE & COMPLETE meal for 50¢. Badger Cafe.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Sunday night in or near Minestic theater, green sweater with 2 yellow stripes. Call R. C. 957. Bell
829.IT'S NOT WHAT YOU PAY, IT'S WHAT
YOU GET.Two cents a word in these Classified Columns is remarkably cheap when you consider the return on your investment.Thousands of our readers can testify to the quick and satisfactory answer to the fulfillment of their desires.For a comparatively small sum you have rented a room, sold or rented a house, garage or farm; sold a second hand article of furniture, an automobile and many other things; obtained help or secured a position, etc.Honestly, wouldn't you have been glad to have paid even more?Past performances count the most and there is no question of what the past has shown in the service of these columns.RESULTS, NOT COST, THE TEST OF GAZETTE
WANT ADS.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Experienced maid for general housework. Call Fred Howe, 73 Third St.WANTED—Experienced maid for general housework. Address 1665, care Gazette.WANTED—Girl for general housework. R. C. phone 1065 White.WANTED—Girl for general housework. Family of two. R. C. 490. 429 Prospect Ave.WANTED—Night waitress. Apply at office. Puritan Restaurant. On the busines.WANTED—Widow or middle aged woman as housekeeper on farm. 609
Caroline St., R. C. 1069 White.

MALE HELP WANTED

CARPENTERS WANTED at Evansville. Call Culkin & Son, 109
Main St., City.WANTED—A resident representative in Janesville and vicinity to handle our line of Farm Mortgages and Bonds. The best references. Robinson
Writing Company, Inc., Madison.WANTED—Experienced chauffeur, apply Grand Hotel.YOUNG MAN WANTED to learn a business which contains many possibilities for the right kind of young man, who will be expected to do several tasks in connection with office work and advertising. The age between 17 and 20 is preferable. Must have grade school education and done two years apprenticeship. Pay to start will be large but the opportunity is just what you make it. In letter of application in own hand writing give age, schooling and any business experience. Address
Mrs. Carlene Gatzke.

HELP, MALE AND FEMALE

WISCONSIN CIVIL SERVICE—Organization of Civil Service Employees. Type of Duties Operator, Examiner, Technician June 5. Director and Assistant Director of Bureau of Communicable Diseases. Pediatrician, Supervisor of Nurse, Assistant Physician, Sanitary Commissioner, Commissioner of Tobacco Marketing Assistant, Mail
Deputy, Secretarial Clerk, Marion Guard, Family Officer and Social Gardener. Attendant on Information and Appeals. Write Wisconsin Civil Service Commission, Madison.

AGENTS AND SALESMEN

SALESMAN wanted for medium priced well known automobile on commission. Address 1662, care Gazette.

SITUATIONS WANTED

WANTED—Position as truck driver.
Bell 2941.

ROOMS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Large modern room
E. C. 494.

SERVICES OFFERED

WANTED—Carpenter and cement work. Excavating of all kinds. Call R. C. phone 816 Red.FOR RENT—Modern room and new garage. Call Bell 2357.

ROOMS AND BOARD

ROOM AND BOARD—Modern room, home cooking. Delightful room, located reasonable rates. 210 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch, CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Errors in which all are corrected
except in extra section given when
notice is made after the first insertion.CLOSING HOURS.—All want ads must be received before 10:00 A. M. for insertion the same day. Local readers
excepted up until 10 o'clock.TELEPHONES.—When ordering an ad
over the telephone, ask the operator
to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 17. Want

Ad Department.

KEYS.—All keyed ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed
ads will be held 10 days after the date
of the first insertion of the ad.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RESOURCES

FOR RENT—Modern furnished front
room at 126 Cherry St.DISPLAY Classifieds 12 lines to the inch,
CONTENTS RATES furnished on
order to the Gazette office.Ads may be left in Badger Drug Co.,
and receive prompt attention.

Elks' Fight Card Is Set--Deadlock in Bowling Wrangle

CAHILL RECEIVES ANOTHER SETBACK FROM POOR HEART

While last minute changes were necessary, the May 24 card of the Janesville athletic club has finally been arranged. It will dish up 30 rounds of scraps with three Janesville lads standing out prominently. The menu will be an all-Wisconsin extravaganza featuring two Fort Atkinson chaps, a couple from Milwaukee and one of the headliners from Superior.

As the program has been scheduled it stands:

Windup—Morris Mallock, Janesville, vs Eddie "Kid" Billings, Superior, 10 rounds at 145 pounds.

Semi-windup—Jack Zalice, Milwaukee, vs Maybe Joe Birch, Milwaukee, 8 rounds at 125 pounds.

Second-preliminary—Joe Lowry, Ft. Atkinson, vs Eddie Hill, Janesville, six rounds at 140 pounds.

Opener—Joe Prox, Janesville, vs Jimmy Murray, Ft. Atkinson, six rounds at 132 pounds.

Cahill Disqualified.

Young Joe Cahill of Delavan was originally the man to fight the semi-final but he struck another stroke of bad luck at Milwaukee Monday when he was disqualified for an overstrained heart by the state physicians. Owing to this fact Al Rotstein, treasurer of the Janesville club, decided not to complete the dealings with the Delavan champion. Arranged arrangements were made with Tom Andrews, the Cream City promoter and handler of the Mitchell boys. Those dickering brought together Zalice and Birch.

Billings Top Notcher.

Ned Billings who battles Mallock, the local lad who claims the welter-weight championship of Canada, has met some of the best welters in the business. His list of opponents includes Jack Britton, world's champion; Jack Malone, Johnny Tillman, Johnny Salvatore, Joe Welling, Joe Eagen, Ned Allison, Frankie Whitney, Mike Paulson and Young O'Neill.

Billings has never been knocked out. When comparatively a novice, he fought Britton in Superior. He was outpointed by the clever Jack but he did so well that after the bout Britton declared him to be one of the most promising boys in his class.

Faber Saves Sox; Cubs Hammered; Brewers Downed

American League

With the game slipping after Kerr had been hit hard, Faber rescued the Sox for a win over Philadelphia, 5 to 4. A pair of speedy double plays saved Kerr who gave up seven runs in less than half as many frames.

A pair of triples and eight two bases fits marked the victory by the Tigers over Washington, 17 to 11. A total of 35 hits were made by the two teams.

St. Louis' pitchers were wild, Boston winning, 10 to 5, on two doubles by Hendryx, one by Pratt and another by McInnis.

Carl Mays appeared with the Yanks at Cleveland for the first time since his pitched had killed Ray Chapman last August. The Yanks in the ninth gave the ball to New York, 6 to 3, National League.

The Cubs were weak at the stick and lost to Boston, 7 to 1. Vaughn was easy meat for the Braves.

After Cincinnati had scored four runs off Toney and were two tallies in the lead, the Giants sailed into Columbus for five runs on six hits, winning 7 to 4.

A three run lead by the Scrubs in the first was overcome by the Cardinals, Brooklyn, losing 4 to 3.

Blanking Pittsburgh and featured by a Homer by Williams with one on, Philadelphia won, 3 to 0.

American Association

Lindner was knocked from the mound and Trentman was hit hard, Columbus winning from Milwaukee, 8 to 2.

Turning 12 base hits and 16 bases on balls into 16 runs, Kansas City defeated Toledo, 16 to 5. Tea of the nine came in the third inning.

TEAM STANDINGS, AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

	W	L	Pct.
Kansas City	15	9	.610
Indianapolis	15	10	.556
Minneapolis	15	10	.556
Toledo	15	12	.481
Louisville	12	12	.489
St. Paul	12	14	.482
Columbus	10	14	.417
Milwaukee	14	14	.391

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

	W	L	Pct.
New York	15	10	.625
Cleveland	16	12	.571
Boston	12	9	.571
Detroit	10	12	.455
Washington	14	12	.519
St. Louis	10	15	.409
Chicago	9	14	.381
Philadelphia	8	14	.360

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W	L	Pct.
Pittsburgh	16	8	.667
New York	18	8	.667
Brooklyn	15	12	.583
Chicago	12	10	.545
Boston	14	10	.417
St. Louis	8	16	.333
Cincinnati	9	16	.333
Philadelphia	7	16	.304

MONDAY'S RESULTS.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Columbus, St. Paul, 2.

Kansas City, 12; Toledo, 5.

Louisville at St. Paul (no game, rain).

Indianapolis at Minneapolis (no game, rain).

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 1.

Detroit, 17; Washington, 11.

New York, 6; Cleveland, 3.

Boston, 18; St. Louis, 6.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York, 4; Cincinnati, 4.

Boston, 5; Chicago, 1.

St. Louis, 4; Brooklyn, 3.

Philadelphia, 3; Pittsburgh, 0.

TUESDAY'S GAMES.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Columbus at Milwaukee, 2.

Kansas City, 12; Toledo, 5.

Indianapolis at Minneapolis.

Louisville at St. Paul, 2.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Washington at Detroit.

Philadelphia at Cleveland, 10; New York, 3.

Boston, 10; St. Louis, 3.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Chicago at Boston.

Cincinnati at New York.

Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.

St. Louis at Brooklyn.

ILLINI DEFEAT IOWA; OHIO WASHES GOPHERS

Iowa City.—Illinois Monday defeated Iowa, 5 to 2, in a Big Ten baseball.

Columbus—Ohio state lost to Michigan, 5 to 6 in a Big Ten baseball game.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Copyright 1920 by Geo. McManus.

Loyalty Call to Local Fans

Once again the officials of the Janesville athletic club come out and call for a larger attendance at the ball games on Saturdays and Sundays. This time they not only ask for better support but they point out that a number of fans are making a habit of running down to the Gateway city to take in the games of the Beloit Fairies.

"When a man becomes a booster for the ball team of another city, there must be something radically wrong with his conception of home town," they say. "He can kick all he wants about things he believes opposite to his liking, but in Sam Hill does he expect to change matters by deserting the ship?"

Colored Men Saturday.

To an undercurrent of grumbling about the sending of the Janesville players to help out the Rivers on Sunday, the official declaration is being done at tide to tide in expenses until the season gets under way. If the fans would come out in greater numbers, they declare, this practice would not be necessary. With Walsh and Wooton going in pretty fair shape, the locals have plenty of twirlers to make this feasible.

While the Simmons Bed company of Keweenah has called off the games booked for next week-end, the promoters have signed the All-American Club, composed of snappy colored players. This should bring forth a nifty battle.

St. Paul—Carl Schmehl, infielder obtained by the St. Paul club from the Cincinnati Nationals, has been returned to the Reds.

NELSON DECLARES ROSS WAS WRONG TO SIGN WARRANTS

HIT THE PILL OR GO DINNERLESS

Chicago—"No hit, no dinner" is the latest rule promulgated in the hope of converting the tail end baseball nine of Northwestern University into a winning combination in the Western Conference race.

"The University will not buy meals for 'hitless dinners,' on baseball trips and players who fail to hit in a game must either go hungry or buy their own meals.

The rule received its first test last week in the game against Notre Dame. Every player hit and the team won 15 to 14.

Map Rules in Baseball League

Preliminary rules of the city baseball league were mapped out at a meeting of the managers of the six teams at the Gazette office Monday night. They will be studied more closely by the committee before being voted upon. Every effort is being made to get the rules adopted.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville bowling association, the meeting adjourned at which it was voted to call the season closed as of the records of Secretary H. M. Lampert and to pay the prizes on the same basis.

Following the action of the captains of the several teams with the officers of the Janesville